

Socket Mobile Power Pack Compatibility Matrix

The following matrix lists devices compatible with the Socket Mobile Power Pack. Please note that some devices may require an adapter and/or booster (available from a third party), as noted in the matrix.

Not all of the devices included in this matrix have been tested to verify full compatibility. Some of the devices were included based only on verification of power specifications.

Socket is continually updating this matrix as we become aware of other devices that are compatible. In the event that this matrix contains omissions, errors or any other misinformation, please feel free to contact Socket Communications at info@socketcom.com
